Virtual One-Person Show on U. S. Grant
Live-Stream by The One Dollar Producer Project, September 4th

Civil War General, Ulysses S. Grant was in it to win it! On Friday, September 4th, 7:00 p.m. you can experience Grant up close and personal, in “Ulysses Grant... A Visit at Headquarters,” a virtual one-person show presented by “The One Dollar Producer Project” in collaboration with “danact3 Productions”. This theatre performance will be a live-stream visit with the “Grant” in the midst of his dramatic Civil War decisions after the Battle of Shiloh.

History-lovers and theatre fans will enjoy an up-close narrative from “the General,” who was a gifted storyteller, applauded by Mark Twain. The show runs approximately 30 minutes, and features Quad Cities actor-playwright, Dan Haughey (hoy) as U. S. Grant.

For online tickets to this special September 4th, U. S. Grant “live-stream” presentation, go to the link: Showtix4u.com/events/OneDollarProducer . Tickets are $10 each.
